

Tanta University organized a medical convoy as part of the presidential initiative "Dignified Life" to the village of Kafr Al-Arab in Zefta Center in Gharbia Governorate to sign the examination and provide free treatment to the deserving families.

Dr. Sahar Al-Hajjar, Vice Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy for Community Service and Environmental Development participated in the convoy.

2)

Tanta University organized a medical convoy in the village of Shubra Al-Yaman in Zefta Center in Gharbia Governorate, to sign the examination and dispense free treatment to the deserving families, as part of the presidential initiative "A Dignified Life".

The convoy witnessed the signing of a medical examination and the provision of free treatment to 940 citizens of the village, and the transfer of 71 cases to complete treatment free of charge at the university's hospitals in the specialties of chest, heart, surgery, ophthalmology, orthopedics, internal medicine, urology and children.

Dr. Sahar Al-Hajjar, Vice Dean of the Faculty of Pharmacy for Community Service and Environmental Development, participated in the convoy.